

List of people killed by Museveni

After 34 years in power, Uganda's ruler list of victims is extremely long. Ugandans know who systematically kills anyone that attempts to bring change in Uganda. Using his intelligence agencies, the 33 year long rule is trigger-happy; it deals with all its challengers with bullets.

Here is a partial list of victims of assassinations carried out by the Uganda regime:

VICTIMS OF A REIGN OF TERROR FROM 1970 TO 2019 (Submitted by an anonymous source)

1. Brig. Perino Okoya, commander of Second Infantry Brigade 1970. Personally shot dead by GSU intelligence officer the Ugandan ruler.
2. Nicholas Stroh, American journalist, 1971. Murdered by Lt. Silver Tibahika on orders of the Ugandan ruler, for investigating FRONASA's murder of Acholi and Langi army officers.
3. Robert Siedle, Makerere University lecturer, 1971. Murdered by Lt. Silver Tibahika on orders of the Ugandan ruler, for investigating FRONASA's murder of Acholi and Langi army officers.
4. James Bwogi, director of Uganda Television, 1971. Murdered by FRONASA agents to tarnish image of President Idi Amin.
5. Michael Kabali Kaggwa, president of Uganda Industrial Court, 1971. Murdered by FRONASA agents and burnt in his car, to turn Baganda against Amin.
6. Father Clement Kiggundu, Roman Catholic priest and former editor of Muuno newspaper, 1971. Dragged from altar during Mass to turn Baganda and Catholics against Amin.
7. Raiti Omongin, first leader of FRONASA, 1972. Personally shot in the mouth by the Ugandan ruler during a morning parade in Tabora, after the Ugandan ruler's claim to power.
8. Ali Picho Owiny, former GSU intelligence officer and colleague of the Ugandan ruler, 1972. Murdered during the attack on Mbarara by the Ugandan ruler because of his knowledge of the ruler's activities.
9. Valerino Rwaheru, comrade in arms of the Ugandan ruler, 1972. Killed by the Ugandan ruler to eliminate challenge to his leadership of FRONASA.
10. William a.k.a "Black" Mwesigwa, comrade in arms of the Ugandan ruler, 1972. Murdered during invasion of Mbarara, to be blamed on Amin's troops.
11. Basil Kiiza Bataringaya, former minister of Internal Affairs, 1972. Murdered by FRONASA agents and thrown into Rwizi river in Mbarara.
12. Erifazi Laki, county chief of Rwampara, 1972. Killed by FRONASA agents on orders of the Ugandan ruler, because as a former GSU intelligence officer Laki possibly knew the ruler's activities. Poisoned on orders of the Ugandan ruler.
13. Patrick Ruhinda, lawyer, 1972. Murdered by FRONASA to turn against Amin.
14. Benedicto Kiwanuka, president general of DP and Chief Justice, 1972. Abducted from the High Court buildings and shot dead by FRONASA agents near Bombo Road.
15. Frank Kalimuzo, vice chancellor of Makerere University, 1972. Murdered by FRONASA agents, to cause fear in Uganda's civil service and academic circles. The student body was told he was a spy.
16. John Kakonge, secretary general of Uganda People's Congress, 1972. Murdered to tarnish Amin's image.
17. James Karuhanga, comrade in arms of the Ugandan ruler, 1973. Shot dead by the Ugandan ruler and blamed on Amin's troops.
18. HOPE RWAHERU, WIFE OF THE UGANDAN RULER AND SISTER OF VALERIANO RWAHERU, 1973. MOTHER OF THE UGANDAN RULER'S SON. Shot dead by the Ugandan ruler.
19. Lt. Col. Michael Ondoga, minister of Foreign Affairs, 1974. Kidnapped and murdered by FRONASA agents led by Kahinda Otafiire and body thrown into River Nile.
20. Martin Mwesiga, comrade in arms of the Ugandan ruler, 1974. Shot dead by the Ugandan ruler after he witnessed shooting of Omongin.
21. Edith Bataringaya, wife of Basil Bataringaya, 1975. Burnt alive by FRONASA agents in order to discredit Amin.
22. Theresa Nanziri Bukenya, warden of Africa girls' Hall at Makerere University, 1976. Killed personally by the Ugandan ruler, by slitting open her stomach when she refused to give up the key to the hall.
23. Jimmy Parma, photographer, Voice of Uganda, 1976. Murdered by FRONASA for taking photographs of body of Israeli hostage Dora Bloch after Entebbe raid.
24. Esther Chesire, Kenyan student at Makerere University, 1976. Kidnapped by State Research agents working for the Ugandan ruler's FRONASA at Entebbe International Airport.
25. Sally Githere, Kenyan student at Makerere University, 1976. Kidnapped by State Research agents working for the Ugandan ruler's FRONASA at Entebbe International Airport.
26. Lt. Col. Sarapio Kakuhihire, army officer, 1977. Abducted and killed by FRONASA agents outside main Kampala Post Office in order to discredit Amin.
27. Dr. Jack Barlow, dentist opponents at Mulago Hospital, 1979. Shot dead in Kampala. Barlow was one of several doctors and senior civil servants murdered on orders of the Ugandan ruler, for his life, not his money or property.
28. Dr. Stephen Obache, doctor at Mulago hospital, 1979. Shot dead in Kampala. He was one of several doctors and senior civil servants murdered on orders of Defence Forces.
29. Dr. Joseph Kamulegeya, doctor for Kampala City Council, 1979. Shot dead in Kampala. He was one of several doctors and senior civil servants murdered on orders of the Ugandan ruler.
30. Dr. Mitchell Bagenda, doctor at Mulago Hospital, 1979. Shot dead in his home at his home in Kampala. He was one of several doctors and senior civil servants murdered on orders of the Ugandan ruler.
31. Lt. Colonel John Ruhinda, UNLA officer, 1979. Shot dead on orders of the Ugandan ruler, seen as a threat to the Ugandan ruler's ambitions. The Ugandan ruler came to eat millet.
32. Boniface Kaija Katuramu, Kampala quantity surveyor, 1979. Shot dead at his Malcolm X Avenue home in Kampala as part of the Ugandan ruler's reign of terror to create image of chaos in Kampala.
33. James Matovu, cousin of Kabaka Ronald Mwenda Mutebi of Buganda, 1979. Shot dead at his home in Kampala. The Buganda prince was one of several prominent Buganda nobles killed by the Ugandan ruler.
34. Bob Naenda Odong, newsreader, Uganda Television, 1980. Shot dead on orders of the Ugandan ruler as part of efforts to create image of chaos in Kampala.
35. Edidian Luttamaguzi, peasant leader in Semuto, 1981. NRA legend has it that Luttamaguzi was hiding the Ugandan ruler in his house and government troops came to arrest him on June 9, 1981 and that is why the NRM marks that day as Hero's Day because Luttamaguzi saved the Ugandan ruler's life by refusing to tell the UNLA where the Ugandan ruler was. The Ugandan ruler's legends. That day in 1981, the Ugandan ruler was not in Uganda but in Nairobi signing a merged agreement between his Popular Resistance Army and Yusufu Lule's Uganda People's Congress.
36. Ahmed Seguya, first commander of the NRA, 1981. Poisoned on orders of the Ugandan ruler.
37. Beatrice Kemigisha, Makerere University lecturer and NRM supporter, 1981. NRM officials used to visit Kemigisha at her flat at the university. The Ugandan ruler wanted to visit her to tarnish Obote's image.
38. Lt. Col. William Ndahendekire, army officer, 1982. Killed on orders of the Ugandan ruler after Ndahendekire refused to join the Ugandan ruler's army.
38. Lt. Mule Muwanga, original NRA officer, 1982. Murdered during guerrilla war. Reasons unknown.
39. George Bamaturaki, UPC Member of Parliament, 1983. Shot dead at Kisimenti in Kampala because during 1980 election campaigns Bamaturaki had argued that the Ugandan ruler was a thief.
40. Gideon Akankwasa, lawyer with Hunter & Grieg law firm, 1983. Shot dead outside the gate of his home on Kyadondo Road in Nakasero, Kampala, to blame it on Obote's legacy.

41. Lt. Sam Magara, second commander of the NRA, 1983. Betrayed to the UNLA by the Ugandan ruler in order to eliminate threat in the bush. One of the people captured.
42. Thompson Sabiti, civil servant and son of late Anglican Archbishop Eric Sabiti, 1983. Clubbed to death near the Lake Victoria Hotel and the Ministry of Planning in order to turn in large numbers from Obote and become more loyal to the NRA. Sabiti was a good target.
43. Prof. Yusufu Kironde Lule, former head of state and chairman of National Resistance Movement, 1985. Murdered by slow-acting poison in London because of his political views.
44. Enock Kabundu, Entebbe civil servant and the Ugandan ruler supporter, 1985. Kabundu was one of the Ugandan ruler's staunchest supporters and the Ugandan ruler ordered the killing of Kabundu. Margaret and Anne Katanywa convinced a UNLA officer they were dating; Lt. Col. Obonyo that Kabundu was an NRA rebel. Obonyo carried out the killing through this action of murdering the Ugandan ruler supporter. Two years before this, the Ugandan ruler had used the same tactic in killing a prominent Muhima in Entebbe.
45. Lt. Sam Katarwa, NRA commander, 1986. Sent to mediate peace with UPC government, was arrested, but was alive after the Ugandan ruler took power in 1986 and was later killed.
46. Capt. Robert Kagata Namiti, UNLA army officer, 1986. Murdered by a slow-acting poison injection by the NRA medical services on the Ugandan ruler's orders because he was a political rival.
47. Capt. Abbey Kalega Sserwada, former Uganda Freedom Movement commander, 1986. He was arrested and detained at Lubiri barracks, tortured, his ears were cut off and he was later killed.
48. Francis Gureme, NRA officer, son of retired civil servant and writer F.D.R. Gureme, 1986. Killed in northern Uganda allegedly by rebels during a mission. Real reasons unclear.
49. Major Peter Musana, former head of School of Logistics and Engineering, Jinja, 1987. Reasons unclear. He was killed by a slow-acting poison a few months after becoming a member of the NRA.
50. Andrew Lutakome Kayiira, cabinet minister and former leader of the Uganda Freedom Movement, 1987.
51. Lance Sera Muwanga, housed the Ugandan ruler's family in exile in Sweden and human rights activist, 1988. Killed by slow-acting poison for his vocal views on the ruler. Other members of the NRA led by Patrick Lumumba, Paul Kagame, Matayo Kyaligonza, Pecos Kutesa, Hannington Mugabi, Jero Bwende, and others were the ones carrying out the mission.
52. Robert Ekinu, deputy secretary of the Treasury, 1988. He was shot on orders of the Ugandan ruler on a peace mission with other Teso ministers like Stanislaus Okuru. Ekinu's death by giving Ekinu's widow a job in Bank of Uganda and giving the bereaved family the government house they occupied in Entebbe.
53. Henry Mugisa, DP stalwart, member of National Resistance Council and Managing Director of Consolidated Properties, the government parastatal, 1989. Shot dead because he gave away his guilt by having Mugisa's body flown to his burial in Bunyoro and a high-powered government delegation attending the funeral.
54. Major General Fred Rwigyema, first commander of Rwandan Patriotic Army and former minister of state for defense, 1990. Shot by Major Peter Baingana and Major General Salim Saleh.
55. Major Peter Baingana, Rwandan Patriotic Army commander, 1990. Shot dead at a farm inside Uganda by Major General Salim Saleh on orders of the Ugandan ruler.
56. Major Chris Bunyenyezi, Rwandan Patriotic Army commander, 1990. Shot dead at a farm inside Uganda by Major General Salim Saleh on orders of the Ugandan ruler.
57. Chris Mboijana, General Manager of Uganda Airlines, 1990. Poisoned in London after the Ugandan ruler stole money intended by management to buy four new Airbuses.
58. Emmanuel Cardinal Nsubuga, Catholic Church's influential leader in Uganda, 1991. Murdered by contagious radioactive poison put under his plate on orders of the Ugandan ruler.
59. Lt. Col. Julius Aine, NRA army officer, 1991. Murdered in fake car accident. Aine and Jack Muchunguzi were some of the NRA officers the Ugandan ruler charged with the assassination of the ruler's brother.
60. Paulo Muwanga, former vice president and chairman of the Military Commission, 1991. Injected with slow-acting poison in Luzira prison because he knew details of the ruler's activities.
61. John Begumisa, Commercial manager of Uganda Airlines, 1992. Shot dead at his home in Entebbe, after the Ugandan ruler stole the money intended to buy four new Airbuses.
62. Edward Mugalu, Kampala businessman and Democratic Party supporter, 1992. Shot dead near Lugogo, Kampala, on orders of the Ugandan ruler, as part of his plan to eliminate opposition.
63. Prof. Dan Mudoola, Makerere University lecturer and vice chairman of the Constitutional Review Commission., 1993. He was killed in a grenade attack in Wandegaya.
64. Dr Francis Kidubuka, Makerere University lecturer, 1993. Killed by grenade while having a drink outside the Paris Hotel in Wandegaya with Mudoola.
65. Amon Bazira, former UPC deputy minister, 1993. Bazira was shot dead in Nakuru, Kenya by ESO assassin Humphrey Babukika, in a plot hatched by the Ugandan ruler.
66. President Melchior Ndadaye, head of state of Burundi, 1993. Assassins of Ndadaye were given shelter in Uganda and after mission was accomplished, were housed in Uganda.
67. President Juvenal Habyarimana, head of state of Rwanda, 1994. Killed in missile attack on his plane, ordered by the Ugandan ruler.
68. President Cyprien Ntaryamira, head of state of Burundi, 1994. Killed in Habyarimana's plane.
69. Benjamin Matogo, Uganda's High Commissioner to Tanzania, 1994.
70. Hussein Musa Njuki, journalist and editor of Assalaam and former editor of Shariat newsletters, 1995. Killed by agents of Military Intelligence using a poison that is known as Seguya as FRONASA men to distribute disinformation in Uganda in the Amin era.
71. Lt. Col. Ladislaw Serwanga Lwanga, former NRA chief political commissar, 1996. Killed by slow-acting poison although he was also HIV-positive, because he was a political rival.
72. Lt. Michael Shalita, Intelligence officer with the Internal Security Organisation, 1997. Shot in Kamwokya on orders of the Ugandan ruler. Shalita was investigating a plot against the ruler's interest.
73. Brig. Fred Kamwesiga, 1997.
74. Lt. Col. Reuben Ikondere, UPDF officer, 1998. Murdered in Eastern Congo on orders of the Ugandan ruler for questioning why the First Family was plundering the Congo.
75. Dr. Akiiki Mujaju, a lecturer in Political Science at Makerere University and dean of the Social Sciences faculty, 1998. Mujaju was murdered in a faked car accident.
76. Joanne Cotton, One of eight western tourists, killed in Bwindi national park, 1999. The murders were planned personally by the Ugandan ruler in order to scare the world. In the killings, the Ugandan ruler pretended to be very hurt by the tourists' deaths and took charge of the hunt for the killers.
77. Steve Roberts, One of eight western tourists, killed in Bwindi national park, 1999.
78. Mark Lindgren, One of eight western tourists, killed in Bwindi national park, 1999.
79. Martin Friend, One of eight western tourists, killed in Bwindi national park, 1999.
80. Gary Tappenden, One of eight western tourists, killed in Bwindi national park, 1999.
81. Rob Haubner, One of eight western tourists, killed in Bwindi national park, 1999.
82. Susan Miller, One of eight western tourists, killed in Bwindi national park, 1999.
83. Lt. Col. Jet Mwebaze, UPDF officer, 1999. Shot in the forehead in Congo on orders of Salim Saleh with the Ugandan ruler's approval, for questioning why Saleh was not doing more to bring the ruler's brother back to Uganda but there was an unexplained gunshot wound on his forehead. His body was returned in a sealed coffin and his family was not allowed to view his body. His brother, George Mwebaze, was also killed.

84. Anthony Ssekweyama, DP stalwart and human rights activist, 1999. Murdered and a fake car accident staged to cover up, on orders of the Ugandan ruler after he came to the United States.
85. Charles Owor, national electoral commissioner, 2000. He was shot dead in Kenya by ESO agents and an accident faked after he protested vigorously at the massive irregularities.
86. Henry Kayondo, lawyer and DP diehard, 2000. He was poisoned by the same East Bloc KGB poison used to kill Brig. Kamwesiga, which induces sudden heart failure.
87. Mukono, Uganda Posts & Telecommunications employee, 2000. Mr. Mukono was gunned down at his home in Namungoona the day before he was supposed to testify.
88. President Laurent Desire Kabila, head of state of the Democratic Republic of Congo, 2001. Shot dead by bodyguard of Col. Kahinda Otafiire. An ESO intelligence officer.
89. Spencer Turomwe, opposition mobiliser and husband to Betty Olive Kamya, 2001. Although he was HIV-positive and was killed by Military Intelligence agents dressed as police, Kamya was intimidated by their murder of Turomwe but instead she became bolder as an FDC envoy.
90. Agnes Katama, managing director of SWIPCO procurement company, 2002. She was murdered and her death was blamed on a staged car accident on the Kampala-Lira road.
91. Brig. Gad Wilson Toko, former minister of Defence, 2002 Murdered in fake accident. Toko during a session of the peace talks in Nairobi had walked across the table.
92. Christine Kania, a member of the Constitutional Review Commission, 2002. She was killed on the same day as Brig. Toko.
93. Deus Mugizi, former Uganda Airlines manager, 2002. Gunmen came to his home in Bunga outside Kampala and as his mother pleaded for her son's life, they said they would spare him. He also knew about the four Airbus planes that Uganda Airlines was supposed to have bought and the Ugandan ruler siphoned off the money.
94. Jonah Mulindwa, cameraman with Presidential Press Unit, 2003. He was an eyewitness to some dirty dealings that the Ugandan ruler was conducting in State House. He opened the room, saw the skulls and bones and almost fainted.
95. Francis Ayume, Solicitor General and attorney General, 2004. Shot dead by Anthony Butele and then accident faked. Family was discouraged from viewing Ayume's body.
96. Robinah Kiyingi, Kampala lawyer and country director of Transparency International, 2005. Shot dead outside her home just outside Kampala. She had gathered donations worth $4billion. The Ugandan ruler gave away his hand in Kiyingi's murder by saying he had a great interest in following how the case and trial were going.
97. John Garang Demabior, First Vice President of Sudan and chairman of the Sudan People's Liberation Movement, 2005. Killed aboard the Ugandan ruler's helicopter. The ruler was in order to endanger the craft and the SPLA using global positioning systems established that the helicopter came down inside Uganda and not Sudan as Kampala claimed.
98. Sgt. John Atwine, alleged killer of Robinah Kiyingi, 2005. Poisoned in Luzira prison to cover up evidence of his framing and the Ugandan ruler's role in murder of Kiyingi.
99. Kevin Aliro, Managing Editor, Weekly Observer, 2005. One of the Ugandan ruler's main methods of dealing with his opponents since the 1990s has been to hit them with false information. Patriotic sources in intelligence who are disgusted with the Ugandan ruler's handling of the country passed this information on to the Opposition that Aliro was actually a spy.
100. Brigadier Noble Mayombo

Ugandans in U.A.E Ugandans in Abu Dhabi United – UGADU Ugandans Abroad UGANDANS IN DUBAI Ugandans in Dubai & UAE Ugandans in U.A.E

101. ALFRED BONGOMIN: On February 12, 2002, politician Alfred Bongomin, who was the LC III chairman for Pabbo sub-county in Gulu district and a Movement for Democracy in Uganda member.
102. ERIA BUGEMBE (KASIWUKIRA) the October 12, 2016 judgment by Justice Wilson Masalu Musene brought relief and joy for Sarah Nabikolo, the widow, who was the wife of Eria Bugembe.
103. JOHN AHIMBISIBWE: After spending a year in Luzira prison, Ivan Kamyuka, who is being accused of murdering John alias Ahimbisibwe, was granted bail by the High Court.
104. DONAH BETTY KATUSABE: Nine people are supposed to face trial in the High court for their role in the brutal murder of business lady Donah Betty Katusabe in Kampala. She was murdered from. Others are Godfrey Kayiza, Philip Mirambe, Stephen Lwanga, Paul Tasingika, Yoweri Kitayimba, Shaban Otuddu and Damaseni Ssentongo.
105. SHEIKH ABDUL KADHIR MUWAYYA: On December 25, 2014, as the rest of Ugandans were enjoying Christmas day, the leader of the Shi'ite Muslim sect in Uganda was killed.
106. CERINAH NEBANDA: By the time she died mysteriously on December 14, 2012, Cerinah Nebanda, 24, was one and a half years into her first term as Woman MP for Kyabanda.
107. Fred Rubereza Nkuranga
108. Assistant Inspector General of Police Felix Kaweesi
109. Chief Inspector of Police Muhammed Kirumira
110. MP for Arua Municipality Col (Rtd) Ibrahim Abiriga
111. Former Assistant Prosecutor General Joan
112. Major Mohamed Kiggundu,
113. Several Muslim Sheikhs
114. 23 young women in Nansana and Wakiso
115. Yasin Kawuma (Bobi Wine's Driver)
116. Maria Nagirinya
117. Ronald Kitayimbwa Driver to Nagirinya